Foreword

This, the most sacred word of God is bequeathed to you and your children by the true light that shineth eternally.

This being "The Testament of Truth" is brought to you through the soul of the fisher of men whilst temporally inhabiting the fleshly body of a simple man of earth whose sole authority is that of being God's messenger of truth and light.

The message is the ray of hope that shines down from heaven to pierce the heart and mind of any who seek eternal salvation.

Now is the time of the separation of souls for an eternity, as the spectrum of Light calls its own home, being those who heed the call to love, peace, mercy, compassion and forgiveness, and the Darkness draws to itself those who deny love and continue to deceive, control, abuse, punish and destroy.

This The Testament of Truth is the 'Correction of the Salvation truth,' in that simple man over ages of time has manipulated the 'Old' and 'New Testament' scriptures unto his own spiritual destruction.

Your Creator would have it that you, as an individual, have this last chance to see the reality of truth and love and peace, so that you have the opportunity to change your ways before your final Judgment.

It is by the Grace of God, that I the messenger have been able to overcome the sin of this world taken upon myself at birth and thus be able to act as God's pen, and write God's holy living word, the written word, the untrammelled, unfettered truth, direct from God to you.

It is my wish that you seek not the messenger, but seek only the meaning of the word of God contained herein, for it is in the understanding of God's Law that sets you free, for only with its full understanding are you able to comply to God's Command of: "Go your way in peace."

Knowing that whatever may occur to your flesh is irrelevant, your spiritual salvation as promised by God and I, is assured in "non-retaliation" when verbally, emotionally or physically abused.

From out of the turmoil, pain and ashes soon to engulf the world, will arise the true church of God, being the unity of faith, true love that shines out from the hearts of all mankind. Blessed are those who see the truth, know the truth, abide in the truth, they are mine, and they shall follow me home to eternal paradise.

Peace shall reign on earth.

Introduction

As the whole world now accelerates towards its final state of mass confrontation, destruction and absolute truth, it is I the returned 'prince of peace' who sends out God's final message for all to read and to 'see & hear' before they personally become embroiled in that never ending fight for what they falsely believe is their RIGHT.

This web site contains 'The correction of the Truth' on earth and the 'end of times' Prophecy, being a fresh new insight that is an 'antithesis' and thus 'contra to' present understanding. For man believed falsely that he could continue on in his greedy, manipulative, destructive and punitive ways and not 'pay.'

This web site reveals the hidden nature of the invisible 'essence' of Darkness that controls all men, and uses them to be its forceful 'arm' in their interaction with others. Only when you understand this 'aspect' of the Source will you be able to set yourselves free from it and its influence over you.

The Truth that needs be reinstated by me is that the forceful CONTROL exerted by man over others either personally or through governing systems is carried out by using the Dark energy of the Source, God, and its use is forbidden by God and, - - -

Its use brings about a painful 'control' over others, and is what then returns upon man within the "As you did sow so shall ye reap" Law of God via the mind and 'arm' of the vain, the arrogant, and those that are openly defiant of their Creator through their ignorance of His power.

The return of suffering returns upon the user of this dark forceful energy and those supporting or condoning or funding its imposition upon others when and 'as' so ordained by God the Sovereign Power.

It is now the time for all to see that the pure doctrine of Christianity of 'peace unto all' is also at the core of every religion and at the core of the soul of man and, - - - it must be adhered to by the individual to attain Salvation, that fact is pure Truth.

The Truth at the 'core' of every religion should be the same:

*The attainment of inner spiritual peace is by the external expression of 'Peace unto all.'
This is only attained in 'bowing' to God in submission to HIS Command:*

'Walk in peace and love one another and, extend mercy, compassion, and forgiveness.'

As the Truth is at the core of every spiritual message, it follows that mankind needs no religions, they only need THE TRUTH.

Jesus the prophet * did 'hear' the voice of the Creator God who gave him the message of 'Peace,' and Jesus then told many of this PEARL he had found, and Jesus faithfully bequeathed his fresh found wisdom unto mankind.

Thus he GAVE the Pearl of great price being the Salvation Wisdom of God to humanity, and the 'Call' from the Creator God of "Peace unto all" became the ideology of Christianity, being that any person that 'heard' the call of "Peace unto all" by God, - - - as 'foretold' by Jesus 'prophetically' as being the way to Paradise now had a choice;*

Being that if they 'bowed' to God and then submitted to God's 'wish' and thus conformed to the call of "Peace unto all" from God, as spoken by Jesus his faithful servant and messenger, they would attain Salvation and be granted entry into God's Paradise.

Note: choice;* - Each individual also has the choice to continue on in their present 'aggressive, antagonistic, merciless, punitive & warring' ideological ways, and suffer the consequence that is documented as being one of eternal torment in the wastelands of HELL for their defiance of their Creator God.

Note: Jesus the prophet - Muhammad the prophet and Buddha the prophet and others in other lands did in a different 'time' also 'hear' the voice of the Creator God who gave them the message of 'Peace,' and they also told many of this PEARL.

True doctrine is a straight path, and whoever sets himself upon its course perfects her-his essential self through the solely peaceful and benevolent path, and their spirit soul returns to the prosperous abode and the source of all perfection. (Heaven - Paradise)

Only the true that adhere to its 'essence' can ascend to the highest level being Heaven, by going through the perfection of the inner self. The path of human perfection leading it to God is embedded in sound belief, and peaceful, merciful, compassionate and forgiving conduct. (daily deeds - actions)

This message is to prepare you for the soon coming total collapse of every 'System' of man on earth as CHAOS reigns for a time, when darkness and terror and non-reasoning insanity becomes the 'Order' of the day. Mankind now faces the last 'Battle of the mind' being, - - - thoughts kind v/s those unkind.

For it is the now intensifying intrusion of unforgiving and vengeful thoughts that will 'turn' every mind into becoming the 'Devil's playpen,' that results in unreasoning insanity with its destructive intent and deeds.

If you wish to know 'why' or how, then read my revelations about the 'coming of the sword' that is wielded telepathically by demonic forces operating through the mind of 'sinful' man and, it is they to now 'overthrow' every modern day 'suit and tie' Warlord. For it is the 'actions' of these political men that did and yet do force God's children away from the true path of Peace.

Let it here be known that all mankind forgot God, and 'relied on' and 'trusted in' religion and the 'paternity' of nationalism using the strength of man's 'Sword,' rather than 'trusting in,' and 'leaning on,' the Holy Word of God that said:

"Peace unto all mankind,"

And each soul must now pay the 'blood price' for their defiance of God as they abused others, and man now faces:

"The Wrath of God."

Being emotional dark energy released by the invisible Dark Sovereign Power, as IT imposes its 'cyclone' of hatred upon man through their 'Sin' within, and through the minds of the arrogant and ignorant who will become mentally intruded upon, and thus 'possessed by' and 'empowered by' its thoughts of unforgiving retribution.

Every country today is Ruled by 'vociferous' anti-god power hungry wolves that have 'cloaked' themselves in 'sheepskin,' but in fact they are neither benign nor kind, for they Rule with a cruel and forceful hand via Statutes that they raise up and uphold using 'force of arms' that give them 'sweeping powers' of control over God's children. All are foolish vain men.

All play 'God' and the REAL God says: "All are now to die."

It is quite obvious that the 'presidency' and his 'agenda' of 'asserting' nationhood, and his agenda of 'economic policies,' and the 'official' departments have become more important than God's children.

This is pure folly, and it is the time for all to know that any man or woman that uses any 'rule' as a justification to 'control, arrest, seize, impose sanctions, tax, invade, kidnap, terrorise, abuse, fine, steal, enslave, punish, or kill' is 'playing' at being God the avenging Dark Sovereign Power.

This Almighty power of God, is now to enforce ITS own 'eye for an eye' Law, and IT will ensure that every 'citizen' of every realm that used ITS 'raw' power in any way that caused 'anguish' or mental, emotional or physical suffering will now pay the 'blood price' in full. Since time immemorial man has been 'enticed' by the darkness to defy God's Command to:

"Only walk in peace and be respectful to all as all are MY children."

"If you defy this Command and trespass out of bounds into the dark shadow land and sup on the fruit of evil by causing others pain, then by MY darkness you will be enslaved and bound, and it is you to suffer in perpetuity in the dark underworld."

As man was and yet is arrogant, and 'abuses' others justifiably in his eyes, he 'invited' a similar dark return due upon himself under God's One Law that is 'Just & Wise.' For Man saw not that the ONE immutable Law of God has two aspects within the:

"As you do is done unto you."

Having a 'positive' Tribute return from the LIGHT for good given to others, and a 'negative' vengeful Retribution return from the DARK for any darkness imposed upon others.

For countless centuries man has been 'trespassing' into the dark 'forbidden' shadow land, as he vain man raised up 'Ruling Class' Systems that controlled and enslaved others, and "warred" against others for many a reason. Thus all contravened the Code of Conduct given and Commanded by the Sovereign Power of the Source, God.

Every 'System' of man is Ruled by legislated Edicts that are dictatorial and Autocratic "Books of rules" that govern and enslave God's children through fear and coercion, and threat of fine or punishment for any non-compliance to its extortionist control and its 'anti-God' unloving and merciless ideology.

These rules are used to extort funds legitimately illegitimately, for the rules made man into 'criminals' for any non-conformity. There is no Democracy or freedom in any land on earth as yet, for it matters not 'who' is elected as head of State, for all are still ruled by the satanic and controlling Books of rules.

The 'Rules' of man are not the 'law,' it is God's Word 'As you sow so shall ye reap' that is THE LAW, and God is totally JUST.

Those of you whom were and yet are unjust are you all, for you all either 'Vote for' or support, or fund by taxation the anti-terrorist war, and you also condone the ongoing ungodly negative political way of 'arrogance, control, regulation' and 'fine & punishment & killing' of your fellow man.

The Dark Sovereign Super Power unknown by man but revealed now by me that upholds the punitive aspect of God's Law, is now to 'smash' and reduce to 'rubble' every warring and punitive System of man and religion that poses as 'good,' but in fact imposes its punitive & extortionist rules of control over man. All defy God's Code of Conduct.

The Dark Sovereign 'invader' is the Retributive 'arm' of God that imposes its 'Just' return due upon the wicked who were or are yet 'sinning,' being you all for your continued defiance of God's Code of Conduct that says: "Only walk in peace and be merciful, compassionate, respectful and forgiving to those yet 'in sin' living."

The power of God's dark invisible army is more forbidding and 'awesome' than is imaginable by any man, and it is more powerful than any army of men, for it and its invisible spirit men know all your deeds, and it works from within your own mind or the minds of your perceived enemies, as it turns man against man.

It knows not your 'language' of 'pleas for mercy,' for its 'men' are merciless, and they only take telepathic 'orders' from IT the Dark Sovereign Source that inspires their minds and yours too if you permit it to. When you become 'aggressive' and you 'ruthlessly' abuse another in any way, then you become as a 'skittle' standing at the 'end' of an alley and, - - -

It is the retributive 'arm' of God (dark energy) that 'bowls' the retributive 'ball of fire' via the minds and 'hands' of the vain, arrogant, and ignorant * to ruthlessly knock you down, as IT the Dark Sovereign Power fulfils ITS 'aspect' of the single "As you sow so shall ye reap" LAW of God.

Note: ignorant * - Those that know not God's Law and thus see not that as they abuse others 'legitimately,' it is they then that place their own souls into the 'bowling' alley, and they then become as a skittle to be treated to the very same abuse on a later day in this or the after life.

No modern army or fortification or weapons will protect anyone or any country from the 'Wrath of God,' that each individual has allowed to descend upon themselves through their own personal negative expressions, believing them as 'The right way.'

None can or will avoid their personal karmic fate, being their 'due' under God's One law for themselves or their 'servants' being untrue. Don't continue to be a 'clown' for God is the greatest force and God sees all and God's Law reigns supreme.

What none see is that all 'anti-terrorist' or legislated punitive measures are terrorism couched in a 'justifiable' disguise, through which pain and terror and destruction 'rains down' upon God's children from the skies, and through the legislated rules of society.

The 'Justice' of God is also absolute, so as any 'man' suffers and 'falls', let all men know that this 'one' caused the same pain and suffering to others before, either in this life or at another time and place before entering the 'flesh' of this Realm.

There are no 'innocents' outside Heaven, and any whom heed not my 'leaven' will pass Dark Judgment upon themselves, and consign themselves into the Abyss.

Any 'man' believing in this 'pen' is soon to be set free by me, so that he can follow his own 'star' and not conform to the ideals or demands imposed by any other men, as he simply abides in God's Code of Conduct and shows respect unto all.

This planet earth is now to be claimed by me the LIGHT of God after the Dark Sovereign Power has done HIS self-empowered duty to Himself.

Those of you who cannot change your 'ways' to the positive of forgiveness & mercy & compassion will now be destroyed, and your souls will be confined to the Abyss for eternity, having enslaved yourselves to the Dark Super Power by your ongoing support of IT and ITS negative controlling ways and, once you are in the Abyss your agony will mount and mount.

Those of you whom would be saved by my LIGHT must now follow me and not fight. You must also stop funding any punitive system of man or war machine and lay down your weapons.

All 'believers' must show God your 'Love' and 'Share & care & compassion' towards the lost sheep, and if they seek to 'crucify' or abuse you, then 'turn the other cheek' and go 'as a lamb to the slaughter.' For only this way will you become one of God's heavenly 'daughters or sons.'

True 'Defenders of the faith' of any race or creed will remain meeek in the face of adversity as they trust in God, and they will not defend their flesh nor fight any perceived enemy, and they will extend peace and goodwill unto all mankind as they fortify their minds against the satanic onslaught in the manner as given by me.

None can 'appease' God using force; all that continue to fight will send their own souls into the hellish night. You cannot wash away blood with blood, only with the 'water' of forgiveness.

This message of 'Hope' is the 'last minute' reprieve offered to humankind, and any that wish to be saved from their present 'dark' hellish destiny must comply with its wisdom and decrees given.

Any that 'flaunt' their arrogance and disregard to this message from God their Heavenly King and Queen will become lost in the dark underworld for eternity, and their suffering and deprivation will be 'unbearable' but unavoidable.

There is a reason for the escalation of family violence and rising planetary aggression, war, terrorism, and unforgiving retribution taking place. It is caused by the psyche of man being attacked and 'possessed' telepathically by a very Dark Alien Race of Spirit beings as the Wrath of God unfolds through the minds of these arrogant, vain and ignorant causing:

"Armageddon of the Mind."

The reason "why & how" they access the mind of man, and why they seek to destroy humanity by turning man against man, and by 'suicide' man against himself, and "how & what" to do 'stem' the invisible invasion of thoughts into every mind is contained within this Holy book.

Seek not the fleshly man for I am in a very deep disguise of a simple soul not very wise. Seek only the written Word of God that is given now to all on earth's sod by God via me.

Please do your very best to see the reality of what I say and also, do your very best from today to TELL ALL of the availability of this message of HOPE that is God's final message to humanity.

Your spiritual strength is your 'capacity' to resist the 'dark' thoughts that tempt you to use 'darkness' in your verbal or physical interaction. You are spiritually strong when you are able to resist the 'coercive' efforts of those still bound by darkness into supporting their extortionist or 'warring' or punitive ways.

If you are strong enough to never 'retaliate' in the face of adversity and, - - - never 'fund' or condone or support the punitive systems of man and, - - - be forgiving of those that abuse you or yours and, - - -

You walk in peace with mercy and compassion in your heart as commanded by your Creator, then you have 'won' your spiritual freedom from bondage to the dark overlord and Paradise awaits you.

All 'warriors' on a Crusade for 'justice' and enforcement are subjecting themselves to the Dark punitive side of God's ONE supreme law:

'As you sow - you reap' - 'as you do is done unto you' - On an 'eye for an eye' basis.

Thus all these 'personnel' do ahead weep as they suffer the same 'agony' that they imposed upon others and, - - - at the same time they draw in more dark 'energy' that despoils & sullies & contaminates their own inner spiritual rose and, - - -

The 'weight' and vibration of this darkness (sin) draws their spirit soul away from the Light of Heaven into the lower dark worlds (realms of consciousness) where forever they punish & suffer as they for 'righteousness & justice' FIGHT.

"Culpability and accountability" are escalating as every person is funding and supporting the unforgiving punitive and warring ideology of governments, thus they are more culpable through this defiance of their Creator and, all become accountable to God and place themselves within the 'controlled' and punitive aspect of God's divine law.

The Testament of Truth

The Sacred teachings of the Light through Terence

This, the most sacred word of God is bequeathed to you and your children by the true light that shineth eternally.

This being "The Testament of Truth" is brought to you through the soul of the fisher of men whilst temporally inhabiting the fleshly body of a simple man of earth whose sole authority is that of being God's messenger of truth and light.

The message is the ray of hope that shines down from heaven to pierce the heart and mind of any who seek eternal salvation.

Now is the time of separation of souls for an eternity, as the spectrum of light calls its own home, being those who heed the call to love, and the darkness draws to itself those who deny love and continue to deceive, abuse and destroy.

This The Testament of Truth is the 'Correction of the Salvation truth,' in that simple man over ages of time has manipulated the Old and New Testament scriptures unto his own spiritual destruction.

Your Creator would have it that you, as an individual, have this last chance to see the reality of truth and love, so that you have the opportunity to change your ways before your Judgment.

It is by the Grace of God, that I the messenger have been able to overcome the sin of this world taken upon myself at birth and thus be able to act as God's pen, and write God's holy living word, the written word, the untrammelled, unfettered truth, direct from God to you.

It is my wish that you seek not the messenger, but seek only the meaning of the word of God contained herein, for it is in the understanding of God's law that sets you free, for only with its full understanding are you able to comply.

Knowing that whatever may occur to your flesh is irrelevant, your spiritual salvation as promised by God and I, is assured in "non-retaliation" when verbally, emotionally or physically abused.

From out of the turmoil, pain and ashes soon to engulf the world will arise the true church of God, being the unity of faith; true love that shines out from the hearts of all mankind, Peace shall reign on earth.

Blessed are those who see the truth, know the truth, abide in the truth, they are mine, and they shall follow me home to eternal paradise.

The forbidden fruit is not the "apple on the tree" and neither is it the "charms" of women that sometimes are denied thee. No, the forbidden fruit is the invisible dark energy flow that flows ceaselessly, and when "of" it you sup your Sin within grows as it is "watered" energetically.

Our God says that to remain free, we must abide in the Word and only peaceful be. If on darkness we partake then our way becomes aggressive and a mess of our life we make.

And if we "feed" on the forbidden fruit we die spiritually. But before we die, we for an eternity do cry, for when bound by darkness and its karmic lode we all demand "an eye for an eye."

As we thus defy and deny the Commandment to "Forgive and only love," we under the: "As you sow you will reap" Law do suffer in perpetuity.

And any who are so foolish and so bound have bound themselves on the "suffering wheel" that goes round and round. For what they cannot see is that what we do comes back, and we never can get free until we put down the sword and heed the Holy "Only love" Word.

So let us all from today now heed this fresh "say" that my sacred pen does bring from our God of light. For all now will feel the vengeful wrath of the retributive God of the dark night.

Blessed shall all be who heed now me. Only they shall of their past dark "fruit" be set free, and given a fresh chance to in heaven dance.

The "Old" and the "New" Testaments are now obsolete, for "man" did words distort and them thus mistreat. All spiritual teachings have become distorted, and their original truth and direction thus thwarted.

All these books must be destroyed. For through their misunderstanding was much evil deployed. All who read them have been led astray, only read this Testament of Truth today.

The "old" books became "contaminated food" as man over "meaning" did brood, and all were vain, thus did the serpent power gain as man, with his "complicated" understanding, misunderstood the power of the "under handing," the "shadow" under God's hand that denies access to the promised land to all who did "distort" the original words prophets did "report."

So I again now "come" to thee with "fresh food" to set thee free

I deliver this fresh doctrine clear and bright, to shine forth as the morning light, and will declare it afar off. I have penetrated to all lower parts of the earth and beheld all that sleep, and enlightened all that hope in the lord their God of love.

I pour out doctrine as prophecy and wisdom, and will not cease to instruct your off-spring even to the Holy Age. See ye that I have not laboured for myself only, but for all of you who seek truth and deliverance.

Behold, I stand at the gate and knock. If any shall hear my voice, and will open to me the door, I will come in to them, and will share with them this wisdom from our God on high.

Terence,
Son of Irene & David

THE LIVING WORD OF GOD

THIS Testament is a message from God to the world.
It is the fulfillment of prophecy and is the naked truth.

It is the message which unfolds the beginning of the End. The swift escalation of the sword and famine that was prophesied would take place as mankind reaps more quickly for past sinning Sown, after which, Peace will flow in and the meek will inherit the earth.

This document is the Correction of the Truth, and reveals the mystery of God and Christ's return, the true nature of Sin and the spiritual reality of Justice and Judgment, the reality of the message that Jesus came to earth to give mankind, and, the truth as to why he was crucified.

And gives the full explanation of How, Why, and When, the inhabitants of planet earth will be "attacked" telepathically on a mental level from within, and be mentally subjugated by evil souls on a lower level of consciousness (hell).

And how we will be used by them, to brutalise and destroy each other for a period of time in which insanity will prevail on earth.

It contains the WISDOM from GOD which will mentally fortify believers so that they remain sane in the process, and survive spiritually.

When you hear my call harden not your hearts

Those that heed not this message through me will be bound by darkness and never be free

This Testament of Truth contains some of the thousands of epistles received telepathically between 1987 & 1997 by the Spirit of Truth, whose sinless "clarity of essence" vibrates at the infinite frequency of the God-head, thus enabling pure truth to link-in to his conscious mind from the Source.

Thus I have corrected the untrue teachings sown by our forefathers who had wrested the scriptures for material gain through their sin, and perpetuated by our elders today unto their own destruction, and yours, if you see not the message contained herein and its bitter implications.

"With thanks to angelic men who daily wielded my sacred pen"

Hear the Word of the LORD ~ O ye Nations
All that hear His Word shall be gathered up, and He will keep them as the shepherd does his flock.

Suave rosa, suave rosa, floreat per hanc domum.

The Heavenly Sea from up above empower me here with God's love. So for sure, for sure, for sure, I'll overcome the negative poor,* for my truth will shine for 'tis truth God's love divine.

Show the way, is what I'll do and pull many a soul through, for they will see what they will see, become unbound and then set free. So friends I ask of you, show you are true, show you are true.

Blessedness in the night. Blessedness of other's plight. Blessedness for being you.
Blessedness, I love you true.

Darling parents of all mankind, help me open their eyes so they aren't blind. Oh sweet mercy follow me too, and compassion, walk alongside too, both please flow like never before, open your arms and let LOVE outpour.

I believe I am YOU
I believe you are TRUE
I believe and I will DO

The Prince of Peace has returned to earth bringing God's True Word, and his love will remain now on earth forever and a day. His message to you is: "Hold fast unto my Wisdom and My Word, he or she that shall persevere unto the end shall be saved. I love you, I bless you."

The contents of this document are divinely inspired by the Creator of all humanity God, and are sent through the ministry of God's angels, and are dedicated to all humanity. I submit them as prophecy and as the correction of the truth on earth.

I submit them in my name Terence the Christ and, I submit them as a Testament of my belief in Him Jesus the man within whose 'flesh' my spirit soul once strode on earth and, I submit them as a Testament to HIS TRUE WORD.

I pray for all mankind:

"Darling children of all mankind, who've walked in the darkness and so blind. I now bless you for our Mother above, who through me now fortifies you all with Her love. Her blessings flow as never before, and Her angels walk by you that's for sure. So lift up your hearts with fortitude and cheer, eternal paradise is now very near."

'Mercy,' the pen of God

'Tis out of Africa will come the truth. The son of the Sun will be the proof. From the land of the mountain, the mountain of God, will the truth emerge to those of the sod.

From the heartbeat of Africa will the truth flow. From the slopes of Kilimanjaro with peaks of snow. From the mountain of God for all to see is the source of all wisdom to be.

From the plains of Africa the eagle soars, shimmering feathers of light will open all doors. Around the planet will the eagle soar, his call will penetrate even into the abyss for sure.

Feathers of light and wisdom and love.
Truth sent from God in the heaven above.
Shafts of gold and silvery light, will silently work in His children at night.

Strengthening their minds for the test in store, again to God's word will many now draw near. From its piercing eye way up high I see the message "please try, please try."

The last shall be first and the first shall be last.

So my children who are starving keep calm in the fast. You shall be the first to reach heaven above through your calmness, and live forever with love.

Those hateful and greedy, who think they're the first, may for an eternity for inner peace thirst. So 'tis for them that this message is spread for they are the ones who filled the planet with dread.

Abide by God's word and forever run free.
Cause pain to others and pain awaits thee, yea verily, the karmic yoke can only by non-retaliation be broke

Trust in God
let it so be
Trust in God
you will be set free.

As it was written - so shall it be.
Mankind must reap before being set free.

Sword and famine across the land, caused by hatred at the satanic hand.

"Then, eternal peace from shore to shore, with God's truth in the land forevermore."

Now begins the fulfillment of past prophecy in relation to the time of tribulation. Resulting in humanity now reaping fully what it sowed in the past when individuals failed to heed the call to love one another, and abused each other.

Peace will flow in after the cleansing is done.

JESUS SAID: "AS I AM, so shall ye be, verily, all who follow me"

Christed souls in heaven abound, all true blue with minds sound. Christed means God's love flowing free, at last, at last, free of binding negativity.

So each of you will Christed be when you allow pure love to flow free, then at last forevermore, you too will grace that distant shore.

Be concerned not who I be, heed the content and become free. Time will tell if I am true, I am trying to be a friend to you. For I see what I do see, so I'll do what must be, be done to show the way. FOLLOW JESUS is what I say,

His truth will forever last,
then in heaven you will bask.
The WORD OF GOD I do say,
IS THE WAY, the ONLY way.

Only through a pure soul of divinity can the truth shine through from eternity.
Love all who come your way, they are your sisters and brothers forever and a day.

Sin - Justice - Judgment, is contained herein, and a deeper understanding of the power of sin.

Now is the beginning, the beginning of the end, when very few will have a loving friend, before the new beginning of the loving age to be, the time our loving God has set so many free.

This, the final struggle for each and every soul is a needed proving time for earthlings who do stroll. Walking in the darkness, making many quail as they mete out pain and many for sure will fail.

Those on earth in ignorance of the power of those below, and how their thoughts invisibly in our minds do sow, will be swung around like puppets on strings, their minds filled with hate and fear and other things.

So dear friends who hear this call, prepare your minds so you don't fall. Just remember, to attain the heavens above, you must learn to give with all your love.

Now's the time to gather around and listen to God's triumphant blast sound. Sounding out from the heavens above, outpouring Her Mighty love. Peace, love and truth forevermore, will She on mighty men outpour daily. Daily must they go their way doing Her deeds every day.

"Follow Me"

The cry calls out, or you'll miss this triumphant shout. Flowing from this mighty pen is the cry of a hundred million men. Men who are angels free now at last from their strivings aeons past, seeking to uplift you in their arms so forever you'll see God's charms.

"Forever, forever"

Is their cry, I hear coming down out the sky,
"Never, ever, will you die, if you remember the truth* and why."*

the truth* - Being that we need to show God that we 'deserve' to be permitted access into HIS Paradise, by showing God by our deed that we are 'Peaceful, merciful, compassionate, respectful, caring, loving, kind, and forgiving, and that we DO 'turn the other cheek' when abused. That is the 'sign' to God that we heard HER 'call' from the Land Divine.

and why.* - Because when we abide in the "Peace unto all & only love" Commandment, our 'sin' is drawn out of our soul and it becomes 'sinless' and, - - - if we 'defy' the Command and fight or control or punish or abuse, we draw more darkness in and we never 'win' our spiritual freedom.

~ The insane season ~

Now is the Time of the insane "Season," and you ALL must understand the "Reason," that in the past, you did "abuse" and "take," and God's WILL must you now "break."

For Father must 'do unto you what you did when untrue.' This IS the LAW of God's "Hand" that will be seen in every "Land" that IS outside Heaven. All eat not of God's Leaven, the Wisdom I did bring so that you could in Heaven sing.

So now "Prepare" to in the "face" of darkness "stare," If you IT deny, you will eternally cry. Take your "Punishment" as you go, calmly, then, only then, will it "slow."

IF you continually retaliate, forever will darkness you berate. Try to my message understand, that God has a very heavy hand, that is, upon all who deny the call to LOVE, Mother's eternal cry.

We only "believe" what we are taught, and this belief can with danger be fraught, for Religion & Truth are far apart, THUS the Messiah gives a fresh start. Bringing pure truth to all whom on earth stroll, so that it can "draw out," a response from the soul of any seeking aspirant under the sun.

Matters not their Creed, OR what they "have" done, and thus, at this "End time," God's love does again on earth entwine through the mind of a simple man, "God's pen," that does earth now span with God's message for all to see, that is, any who'd forever be free.

So any who on its "living water" sup, will for sure fall not to the satanic pup.

Many have been taught "Jesus did you save." This is untruth emanating from the "knave." Jesus came to "Set you free" through heeding God's WORD he spoke freely.

And, the Spirit of Truth does again on earth walk to teach all how darkness does us stalk daily. Through each and every mind, thus, we are unkind and also totally blind in that God's call we cannot heed and we continue to mercilessly make many bleed. Totally denying our God of love who says, "Please TRY," from up above.

So this dove now bequeaths to you The Testament of Truth, his Legacy true. Read it if you "have the time." Let your mind and soul with pure truth dine. It is God's WORD that IS the way, I God's MESSENGER say today.

~ The futility of praising men ~

“Christians” praise Jesus the MAN, forgetting his MESSAGE which is God’s plan for ALL to daily HEED,
 NOT make others suffer and bleed.

Children, heed me today.
YOU ALL walk the wrong way.

I am here but to “show” how it is we fall below through the power of the mind, being thoughts that us bind as they twist and weave they us deceive into believing we are doing good, and thus God’s WORD is misunderstood.

For this “thought” is “power play,” emanating from far away from that land that we call Hell that has a very hypnotic “Spell” over the mind of simple 'man.'

Who “believe” that they can “span,” sit astride any other “person” and control them, as they do “plod” on any level outside Heaven where so few sup on God’s Leaven, being the wisdom of LOVE that outpours forever above.

“We” the children but “instruments” be, for the Source of all creativity, and the Source down below from whence all evil doth outflow, and, we “think” we understand the Word of God from the promised land.

But our minds did twist and weave seeking “control,” and did the deceiver believe that we are mightier than God, and that we and it can control all who plod.

And thus its call we obey until one day we feel dismay. For its control has reached “such” power that within “us” its “force” does “glower,” and this force does us control totally as we do stroll, and, there is naught we can do, for we can neither hear nor heed the WORD TRUE, and thus are we unkind to self and others as we are blind.

I speak of the thoughts and feelings that flow through us, and, their governing influence on our expressed deeds, and also of the invisible mental influence from other unseen levels of consciousness which takes place twenty-four hours a day.

The New Golden Age is dawning; the quickening vibration will be felt by all mankind. The separation of the wheat from the chaff has commenced, the time of our Judgment is at the time of our “last breath,” and those that “pass over” whilst reveling in sin, will forever and a day wonder, how stupid they’d been.

We are known only by our deeds towards our brethren, by what we do to and for them, ‘tis not enough that we do naught, those who cannot “give,” and help uplift our needy brethren are almost in the same category as those who abuse others mentally, emotionally, and physically.

~ DELIVERANCE ~
the Order of the Day.

Never has so much been required in so little time. The beauty of the dawn will not awaken the many. Strength of mind and strength of character is a must.

The weak shall fall, the ignorant shall fall, the stupid shall fall, the vengeful shall fall, and all those who suffer the soul disease of greed, hatred, lust and power.

The beauty and the beast, for a little time the beauty shall surely sleep, there will be the darkness of pain, torture and turmoil. This will be, this must be, attempts of allayment will be, and are futile.

Let the river run, those of God must remain silent. Let them strengthen themselves with the inner strength of faith tested to the limit, but remember the goal, life, eternal life with Christ.

Seek ye to the depths of your souls, prepare ye for this time, submit to no one, lest ye forsake your souls to the Devil. Remember, his ways are cunning and deceit, his values are naught, but God's children, remember, you are not alone, you have a shepherd, and the day will surely come when you are gathered up.

But those of the other world of darkness, and those in-between must see you and know you for what you are, for they too are being tried and tested and given every last chance for remorse and a new undertaking. The commitment to God's ways of Hope, Love, Charity, Compassion, Forgiveness and Truth.

So dear brethren of ours, deliver yourselves up from all evil ways. The time of your judgment is at the time of your death. Forwards and upwards or lost in the dark, this must be, for the time has come to clear the air so to speak.

Understanding and forgiveness must be projected by those of the light to those still in the dark or in confusion, this will implant a seed, a remembering seed, those in the borderland might be saved by this seed.

Those in the darkness will dwell on this seed, and in the depths of the darkness that seed will grow into remorse, and thus when they rise again in the flesh, they will or may reach out for the light. So brethren so dear to our hearts, in love, hope and truth, we leave you for now, be of good cheer, you shall never be forsaken.

Exactitude of the spirit, deeper awareness into the depths of eternity, submitting oneself to ever increasing beauty and truth. Forever is the keyword, non limiting the vastness of experience that lies ahead, ever increasing ever expanding.

Fulfillment of time, authoritarian dispensation, accumulation of profit, spiritual awareness and growth, fermentation and breeding, deliverance and destruction, diseases of the mind, beauty and incest.

Compassion towards others is the infinite requirement.

Avoidance of this compassion is caused by the invidious invasion of the soul by dark forces bent on corruption, deception of the mind. Foresight and forethought will maintain a fortress of stability where promptness of action after identification is our deliverer.

Deviousness and cunning bent on our destruction must be identified to stop the flow of insidious poison. This is the biblical mist that puts the soul to death as it infiltrates our mental fortress whilst we sleep, unaware.

Cleanse the soul. Daily seek this refuge and fortification, do not be lulled by the untruth of non-caring awareness, abide in constant forethought.

My mind is like a song, humming and spinning, weaving and thrusting, turmoil and grief, destruction and death, premonition and priestliness, forsooth we hear, forsake your God, Jesus is near, draw near to your God. Forgiveness sublime, torture and tears, purpose of thought, purpose of mind.

Deliverance, deliverance, deliverance, these must be the words, thoughts, dreams, essenceing through the turmoil of the mind. Daily prayer, daily supplication, daily drawing together, closer and closer.

Bequeath to your mind the gift of your soul.

Salvation, deeper and deeper this knowledge must run, through the turmoil through the grief must run the silver thread, spinning and weaving, joining and drawing closer and closer, the knowing that death must us part, but only for the brief moment whilst the river runs.

Souls embalmed in eternal salvation, stand fast, and remember the ways of our LORD, in all things stand fast, death before dishonour.

Truth in time shall be told, forward, onward, fearlessly through grief and turmoil, threading the way, fortuitous in soul, fortuitous in deed. Remember the truth, truth in word, and truth in deed, blessed are those who see the truth, know the truth, and are guided by the truth.

Deception and fear are constant companions lurking on every side, but crystal clear as the morning dew must be the vision ahead, gleaming in the distant dawn, never lose sight of it, follow the Morning star, keep it in your mind, let it lift your heart above the dust.

Forsake all known in misconception. The way of the Christ like a lamb to the slaughter, this is the only way; let not your souls be deceived by your minds that there is any other. Strength children, courage, foresight, wisdom, and the deep knowing of the truth of ultimate salvation, Love, Compassion, Understanding, Forgiveness.

As we strive against the thoughts within us, we will find the blocking and unlocking, glimpses of despair and doubt, fear and misfortune. Clearly we must see clarity and purpose, deal ourselves the blow, the blow of inner death to all that blocks the way.

Further and further along the path, seeking and searching. Traveling through the turmoil, freshening like the morning dew, strengthening like the morning breeze, flooding like the rising tide with purpose, insight and new courage.

Desperate the curse against us, purposeful in its march and toll, forward ever forward we go sounding the bell of triumph. Sweetness is the sound of glory, sweetness is the sound of truth, sweetness is the sound of knowledge, leading us to everlasting peace. Adrift in the ocean or lost in the dark is not for us. Blessings of purest gold.

Doubt not the meaning of what you hear, truth not fear must be yours, let the life force within expand, in depth and beauty let it glow with light for all to see.

Naked must you stand for all to see, naked in truth, naked in belief. The dawn shall be cold, yes with chill as well, not to the bone but to the very marrow within.

Duty for all sons and daughters of God, faces to the sun with calmness to the fore. Through the turmoil Terence, you must lead the way. Through the storm you will run, lighting up the path of light and of truth for all to see.

Be with us as one, we shall be your brief, brothers in love, sisters in beauty and truth. Strengthen your souls 'till sweat stands on the brow in awareness and control of inner hate, hate of what you see, obscenity to the fore, against revenge as never before for what lies in store.

Though your muscles tremble, though your thoughts may shake, you must be firm in peace for all, and not of any partake.

Clearly must you Christians see, the truth and where it lies, in everlasting peace ahead your brethren must not be despised. See them as sorrow, see them as fear, see them as greed and hate, but do not relate.

Let your soul within recede and call your mind to task. Belief and sorrow, tragedy and trust, friends and foes, all alike must you love, knowing of their pain within. Reach out and touch, bequeath to them the blessings of the sun, Pure liquid love.

The magnitude of the task ahead is immense. Fortunes of war, fortunes of men shall all be used. Fortifications and ramifications, blessings bestowed, gifts and denials, brevity, shortfalls, insight and delusions, the dreams of many shattered, misfortune and gun-smoke as never seen before.

The planet a seething writhing mass of insanity.

Desperate men and desperate deeds, through this turmoil will run the silver thread of truth and sanity, silently woven by those of God, infinitely patient, infinitely still, infinitely courageous.

Burgeoning beliefs, sweat on brow, tingling nerves of steel, forget me not, denial and deliverance, overbearing, powerful, disastrous deception, freedom and release, the distraught and the fearful. Yes the river shall run.

Emotions, emotions, emotions, so high and so vibrant, taut as violin strings, swayed and strung, plucked and pricked, twisted and turned, bleeding and frothing, distant and dark. They are the players sending their thoughts up from the dark.

Turmoil and grief, laughter and jeers, joking and cunning, deadly intent, round and round like puppets on strings reel the poor players. Ever God's silent men, the solid and the sinful, like drawing like,* up from the depths come the souls of the past.

Nearer and nearer gather these storms, bent on destruction, torture and tears. Seek ye the shelter, the shelter within, the shelter of silence, not the shelter of sin, nothing but courage lest your heart hate, this would be sinful, dreaded and belated. Lose not the thread that joins you to God, sanity and peace shall be your lot.

Gently, gently flows the tide, the ebbing swung back and forth, in truth and love and trust, we now must fear the worst, future seeds of doubt now spread.

Amidst the awakening dawn the creeping crawling creatures emitting every mourn, drearily it seems their creaking bones awake, upsurge awaken, upsurge awaken, feeling their new power from within.

The New Age heralds the quickening vibration, raising consciousness, raising men, all shall be elevated up from the dust, slowly at first but quicker than last. Lust for your blood as they come from the past.

Now is the time Terence son, as we your dear brethren silently speak, onwards my son must every man run, onwards and upwards to the face of the sun. Spread your wings now as never before, let your love flow and seed as it goes, swifter and swifter your courage must grow, and rise with the vibration our Lord did sow.

Leave all the doubters, forsakers aloof, help all the needy the wholesome and poor, and any friends who come to your door. Quickly and calmly your feet will now tread as stronger and stronger you rise from your bed. Bend with the trees as the wind your wings spread and fly like an arrow from whence we you sped.

Seemingly fruitless some of your tasks seem, but do not tarry, let it seem like a dream. Consciously trusting and lovingly hope, till death does us part is the cry and the hope. Living the life of peace evermore, twisting and turning with fate to the fore. We love you, dream awhile.

Down and down the river runs down into the depths, deepening chapters from the past, rising from their rest. Slowly, silently from the past runs this awful tide, brushing all aside.

Never let your soul at rest while this river runs, all the time aware be, never time to rest. Quickly and quietly as it flows flighty must you be, go evermore into the past, visibly unseen, go your way son, into the mists of time.

Bear the cross of mighty men, cleave it to and fro, cut a swath of truth so deep that even the blind can see. Sadly, as you walk your path, greatly burdened in your heart, flow with it, do not stem it, great is its power like never before.

Great the hordes of angels, waiting to be released. Swiftly they flow from above wielding their swords of truth and love. They pick and shove as they go, lifting up and dashing low.

Deftly runs their mighty wand as it weaves from to and fro, the greatest wizard of all time stands behind this mighty host, making sure that none is lost, all up must go, even a tiny step.

Oh sweet wanderer from the past, hold your breath, let forever last, last until the final race, last until the final pace, onwards and forwards you must race. Through the turmoil, through the grief, the lusting the thief, the dread and the turmoil, seek it, find it, as you speed along.

Never cease your triumphant song, sing it loud and sing it clear, so far and wide that all may hear. "The Prince of Peace" that song must say, "Is here for evermore so pray, pray for peace that evermore will last, and last forever and a day." Blessings flow.

Gently, so gently rise up from your bed and lift up and raise your tired old head. Go your way now night and day and let all you meet know of these days, going hither, going there, leave none unbidden though they fear.

Seek the frightened, call them near. Desperately now the river runs, daily filling up and catching ground.

Beauty in the night must sleep, gently in the day must weep. Clearly now lad you must see where your duty lies, high and free, free to move around a lot, covering a lot of ground, silently your heart must fear, even though you know we're near.

Coursing gently through your veins reigns that truth that must be ever told. As the story begins to unfold, unfold in dreams of wise old men. Carry on forward son for evermore. Tarry not with heavy heart lest your sanity depart, go forth midst the daily stream and waken all the ones that dream.

Life for some is not for long and drearily now begins that song, song of vengeance, song of hate, how our brothers must relate to the inner turmoil debate. Sisters too will feel the pinch as life tightens up the winch.

Going out by day and night you must every candle light. Speedily your heart will grow as years roll by and its love grows, grows and grows for all to see, justifying the cause you be. God bless.

Gone are the ways of the good old days, when evil could be held in the hand. To take up the cross for the right of the land is the aim of the man of the sand. As the seed is sown deep in the heart by truth, the ways of lying and evil forsooth.

The quickening pace of the fast moving race means nothing will stand for long still, so take your hand to your heart and give it a start or travail and terror will win. Bless the ways of our Lord who upholds the sword and let justice and truth in to win.

Prepare the land for the peace near at hand, for many a soul needs be fed, and a fire by the hearth brings forth the warmth, and we needs be in it to win. When the heat of the meat gets too hard to beat, retreat is the name of the game.

When feelings flow high then you reach for the sky, and bring forces of light within. Thoughts of darkness put out with the sword and the light with a fierceness as never before. If you fail you will quail with the strength of the darkness within.

The terror you will feel will make you kneel and bow to the forces of sin, and the might of the night will carry you down to be devoured by dark forces within.

So knights brave of light, put up a good fight and lift your souls on high, where once and forever they will dwell up high in the sky.

This I write to all of the light, enclosing a few short poems. Daily read out what I write and strengthen up your souls. Know that the terror that is to come is without and is also deadly from within.

The God of light the God of love is testing every soul. Dark forces kept within will now come rushing out. Feelings high, feelings low, feelings now deadly grow, dragging down mighty men with one sweep of an inky pen.

Doomed are those who have no say, not the power of might, but the power of right. To all my friends of light I say:

“Seek within and know thyself, fill the cupboard, fill the shelf, fill the mind with powerful thought, eke out all the dread as naught. Sow this daily seed with love and increase our Lord’s blessings from above.

Test your feelings day by day, make sure you hold them all at bay. Giving-in to dark power play lets your thoughts be held at sway, swayed by men so far away, rusting evil making way. Cut them off and throw them out with the power of the light.

If your thoughts let you down, remember sons and daughters, there’s NO crown.
The power of life and death is yours.” (spiritual).

Bequeath to your mind the gift of your soul.

The time has come upon this land for every man to make a stand. Deepening shadows are at hand, turmoil grief and troublesome bands, hordes of pirates, brigands tall, spreading terror, taking all.

Now’s the time. Stand firm within; do not allow your head to spin. Arrows falling thick and fast reaching up from out the past, dark and crazy are the minds, cunning deviousness unwinds.

Treachery will reach its peak, consuming all the slow and weak. Only meek and mild shall stand, waiting for the Promised Land.

God’s good angels standing fast, holding out until the last. Let your blood run cold within but never, never ever give in. Onwards, onwards Christians go, follow not the mighty flow, flowing thick, and flowing fast from dark ages, will you grasp.

Let them come and let them go, let their deadly evil sow. Not for you this scum and ruin, deadly like a cloud of gloom. Sickly, treachy, sticking looms, dragging down many to their doom. Travel fast and travel light, camp beneath the stars at night.

Daily move, ne’er slacken pace, to keep afoot the deadly race.
Crowds a’coming from afar, never leave your door ajar.
Silently you spin along, singing the mighty truthful song
Hallelujah Hallelujah Hallelujah

I need a band of mighty men who wield not sword but only pen. They must find that duty lies with our God in heavenly skies. To fight against those who despise all the faithful meek and wise. Greatly must their courage be for them to trust and follow me.

Blessings flow from those above, blessings from the snow-white dove. Deeply search their hearts. Forwards forever shall be their march onto heavens up above, if they can find both truth and love, love for all their brethren dear, who need reach out with a tear.

Silently we go our way, never fearing as we pray. Guidance evermore above abounds for us if we can love. Many hands for us will search, seeking compassion out of reach.

Foreknowledge is our surprise against dark forces every side.

Earnestly I call to you, heavenly guidance through me through. Thousands need your powerful pen to save them from the lions den. Rack your brains for every name of those of light you know about, we can sit then and talk about truth, love, and the power of light.

The truths to be told now, it's the new pace, it's the only way now in this race. The trouble and turmoil that lies just ahead is so deadly to all but the best, believe in it darlings, let God do the rest.

Farther and farther the river now runs. Deepening shadows out of the past make a man's blood run cold at the start. If only you knew how long it would last, forceful and hateful right up to the end, turmoil and cancer, too much to defend.

Quietly and quickly must your poor minds think, if you are to survive the pale and the pink. Slowly and deeply changing hues of red, all must stop and stand and think.

Beautiful the day, so still the night, frightening the distant sounds, ever nearer, turmoil and grief, justice and tears, gnashing of teeth, laughter so brief, gallantly go your way sowing your seed of truth.

This forever will not last, slowly this rushing tide from out the past will diminish in the dark as it comes hurtling past. Reaching back into the dead goes this mighty foe, pulsating ever quicker goes this nightly flow, back ever back until it reaches peak, rushing into the night never getting weak.

Suddenly, silently, the mighty flow will stop, like a shorn-off wheat field cut-off as a crop. When the shudder is over and the earth has reeled, then the peace will flow in and never be concealed.

Slowly the ashes burning in the dust will cool off, and to rise again, green, green will the meadows be, lithe and bright with gold and green. Peace at last will reign, all the terror gone and no one will feel pain.

Yes it's time to look ahead, no not everyone will be dead, now's the time to put away secret funds for rainy days. Sell up all that you have got, put the money in a pot, time will come when you do see where to spend it to stay free.

I say to those who hesitate, if you do you'll be too late. Come on lads it's time to take strong firm steps, there's lots at stake. Rally around this neighbour of ours, he's that strong friend of ours, let him know that he will be part of both you and me, come into that light of mine, from whence doth all truth shine.

Glory be to all of you that have the strength to carry through daily nightly say your prayers, just as new lovers do

To those men of the light who find themselves in dizzy plight, seek ye the shelter of the heart, do not make another start. Friends will come, friends will go, neither run fast nor slow. Searching, searching go daily forth with silent laughter and mirth.

Your hearts you must fill, with daily wisdom from the hill. Hill of glory, hill of light, we will fill your darkest night, daily bear your cross up high, even to the darkest sky. Lord of truth, Lord of love, will lift all of you up above.

Never, never bend your will, to the seekers beneath the hill. Though they daily rant and rave, go forth hither, many save. Save them from the fear they face, instill them with truth and peace. Give them all your deep succour, even let them have your hour, hour of love, hour of peace, when you commune with God.

Gently now go your way son, go forth gently 'neath the sun, daily streamers we shall send, to ensure your hearts don't bend. Silently quickly seek more friends to assist against daily tournaments. Tournaments of death and fire, through which all must pass now. Blessings now from up above sent by snow white turtle dove.

Now it's late and o'er the spate of things in time to come, I greet you lads with a shake of the hand, we shall be a very small band singing "Hi Ho" as along we go.

We'll be a hundred men or so. Only a hundred though we be our ARK shall be made for thousands to see, thousands shall the Lord send our way, asking for guidance of what I do and say.

I say to you lads, don't tarry long, as our dear Lord's already sending them along, daily now in twos and threes they're flowing here to find some peace.

Everyone knows the time of day, don't turn a hair when I say: now's the time to gather around the old campfire and make a stand from without, and also from the hell that is within. You, you and you I've been writing to, better move fast or we'll be too few.

Hundreds and thousands shall come our way, sick and hungry children, the poor and needy too. When we make a stand there is no looking back, our dear lord will make sure of that.

In the name of our God who is standing by I say to you, He's looking in your eye, give it some thought or at least give it a try because if you don't, He knows, and you'll surely die.

He's waiting here with loving arms for all those who see His charms. Guidance, guidance will daily flow as our messages grow and grow. Keep them coming thick and fast or our dear lads will weaken before we start.

I know what it's like to be sitting sleek and trim, it's a real test to get up and get slim, but I know for sure that it's the only way, to open up your arms to all that come to you.

Give them a nickel and a farthing too, then get on your knee and mend their broken shoe. Getting up at night to check that all's a'right, that's going to be a common sight.

As you get to know him and let him in your door, you'll wonder what on earth you did before, your old heart will start to sing with joy and you'll know heaven as never before.

You see sisters true and brothers blue, it's really just like walking through a door, I've done it once or twice and know for sure, you'll have to take my word or hit the floor. Frankly I say to you, you just don't have a choice.

So softly now then go and search out your hearts. Do I seem like a lion trying to tear you apart? The Lord of the heavens IS standing by your side, hoping and wondering when you'll make up your mind.

He keeps his fingers crossed as he stands about, just making sure you give up the gadabout. Gadabout of mind and also shame when you don't even recognise his name.

He's doing his best to help you pass a test, take off your blinkers and maybe pass the rest. Lots of love to you, angels standing by, we angels can't move till you get up and try.

This ARK we will build is not timber for sure, with today's coming mentality it would not get off the floor. They'd see it from afar and come by truck and car, gather up the timbers, and put them on the fire.

The days of the fishes and water now long gone, are replaced by signs of air and Sun. The ARK we build today that is for girls and men, is an ARK OF THE MIND that they can shelter in.

They also need many places of food and shelter and rest, for this without, they could never pass the test. Up front and to the fore, those that show the door must need have so much love as never before.

But the heart of our Lord God is open wide and more, and I know for sure, that limitless is His law of suppliance, and I know His thoughts and love as well, for all of us who gather around to tell.

To tell a mighty story of life and truth so near, and the funny bit lads is the folks are glad to hear, for deep down in the hearts of those being sent to me, they know now that forever they will be free. Free to roam the heavens with love and joy and fate, never more the pain, aggression, fright and hate.

Hopefully now soon you'll get the message loud and clear, and get your socks and shoes on before the end of the year. This flow of truth sent from heaven knows no ends or bounds, and for now I'll stop it coming for my head's going round and round.

Just another line they write before they go, there are also angels around you, waiting for you to flow, once you make a move and put the switch ON in the mind, they will lift you up with a swoosh and a smile.

Blessings from above on the wings of a dove.

Greetings flow from us that must make you daily believe and trust. Go forth daily against all mirth, and strive to do our good Lord's work. As before the great rain there were many vain who ridiculed with great mirth.

So to you now son we bequeath a gun from which the devil himself shall shout and run, having a muzzle of gold and shining white, emitting truth and a powerful light, for you see my lad it's a prerequisite that every man must trust before the fight.

There are many of shame who will have no name, and it's of them we speak who are greedy and weak. Mighty men are FEW who will put their trust in you, so that's why we don't harass you overly overdue.

There are many of the mind who are not kind, and many of the others who are not true, so soldier boy in armour shining bright, against those immense armies will you fight.

We salute you as we ever do when we see that you are faithful too, faithful right up to the end, e'en when others think you're round the bend. We watch you send our mighty song into the midst of gathering throng, and now we wait and watch and see, and we again salute you for what you be.

The winds of change are strengthening still, preparing to quench the truth of God's great hill, that beautiful hill of which we speak, is the greatest ever with snow capped peaks.

Resplendent and residing there are great souls tried and true, as your pen is running out we'll say g'night to you, and on the daily morrow we will keep in touch, for great becomes your burden and we love you very much.

So soldier blue who is so true, we continue again our saga to you. Across the plains and out of the woods, debris will soon come floating through. Debris of women, men, and children too, and for your band it's work to do. We'll appear too little and few, but believe us when we say "never."

The time will come when you shake your head, looking across the morning dew saying, my God can this be true. Bodies piled up thick and thin, the mist rising up from their skin. The daily prayers that they will say will herald the brand new waking day. Your little band of mighty men will rise up fast and say again:

"Together lads we'll go forth now into cities standing afar, we'll drive down every street and corner and lean and look out of the window, we'll search and search and search we will, finding all the broken-hearted and little children till, we'll load them up onto the trucks and then wander on back down the road, follow the winding tracks we made until we find our sweet ever glade."

So stretch your minds and come along, there's a lot to do a'fore we sing this song. There's mountains of work lying ahead and still you folks are lying in bed. Verily, verily I say unto you, wake up and follow our Lord God true.

Her guidance and blessings She will send to you, will go on forever if only you are true. So make your move fast for good days won't last, and it's harder and harder when we needs fill the larder.

The angels above send their love and hope and pray and watch every hour, to look and see from you and me, which of us will go higher and higher.

Now's the time to gather around, and listen to God's triumphant blast sound. Sounding out from the heavens above, outpouring Her mighty love. Peace, Love and truth forevermore will She on mighty women and men outpour, daily, daily must they go their way, doing Her deeds every day.

Follow ME the cry calls out, or you'll miss this triumphant shout. Flowing from this mighty pen is the cry of a hundred million men. Men who are angels now at last, from their strivings eons past, seeking to uplift you too, gathering you up in their arms.

"Forever, forever," is their cry I hear coming down out the sky. "Never ever will you die, if you remember the truth and why?" Hundreds and thousands and millions, hundreds and thousands and millions, ever and ever, ever and ever, this is the cry forevermore that I hear them outpour.

Silently now they bow their heads, knowing the deadly dread ahead, for these men of the king they see, the deadliest of ever foes before, forever, forever, forever, forever, as the sound is fading away I hear some of them start to cry, the sound now is humming low, forever, forever, forever, forever, but gently now receding low.

From ten million billion mouths - I hear the pleas, hear the shouts:

ALL YE TALL MEN ON THE EARTH
HEED THIS CALL FLOWING FORTH
OUR LORD CHRIST IS LIVING WHEN OTHERS LIKE YOU FACE THE LION'S DEN

IF YOU FORSAKE HIM NOW, WELL THEN
WHY SHOULD HE UPLIFT YOU, YOU KNOW WHEN SWIFTLY QUIETLY LEAVE YOUR BEDS
NOW'S THE TIME TO STRETCH YOUR LEGS

Moving forwards and faster too, not e'en time to put on shoes, desperate our plea to you, much to be done as you know, hundreds of millions, hundreds of millions, hundreds of billions, hundreds of billions.

There's nothing more for me to say, I've never known such an incredible day, to hear the sound of ten billion men flowing vibrant through my tiny pen, their cries and pleas I shall hear forevermore and never forsake a knock on the door.

Brethren mine, children so sweet, I reach out to the humble, caring and meek, from this very hour I implore, unlock your hearts and open the door.

Open your arms forevermore, for God's children the needy and the poor, for this too is the cry from up above, strumming vibrant on air from our turtle dove, forever, forever, forever forever, forever, forever, forever, forever, forever.

For me the world will never be the same again, for I'm just a scribe with a tiny biro pen. Can it be the truth that I've just heard, all those men singing out of love for our LORD, forever, forever, forever, forever, that rolling, calling, distant cry, will roll around my head until the day I die.

FOREVER, FOREVER, FOREVER, FOREVER,
FOREVER, FOREVER, FOREVER.

And now I'm shivering and shaking with dread, my bones are trembling and I'm feeling the dead, the cry and thunderous roar they put out, has frozen my body from inside out.

Forever, forever, forever, forever, this too is their thunderous reply they are returning to those in the sky. I see the power of the devil in their eyes, as they open up and emit their cries.

Truly, the sounds coming from these beasts, has frozen me through my electric sheets. My skin's quite hot to the touch but my bones and marrow can't take much. I see screaming horrible writhing hordes, all scrambling across boarding boards.

Like ships of old that came together, these dark creatures are reaching up to heaven, where angels wait with *glistening swords to do battle with invisible hordes.

These angry violent arrogant men are lusting and vengeful for revenge. "Forever, forever, forever, forever, forever" as well their satanic cry, but not as powerful as the call from the sky,

FOREVER, FOREVER, FOREVER, FOREVER,

Calls our Lord Jesus from the sky,

FOREVER, FOREVER, FOREVER, FOREVER.

*glistening swords - Means: pure words of truth being God's wisdom.

SIN

The SIN: Are the seeds of darkness within the soul. Which are also referred to as the sin forces, for sin has a vibrating energy field of negative emotional feeling. There are many different "sins" within the soul of an evolving spirit, e.g., Fear, Hatred, Anger, Greed, Jealousy, Vengeance, Criticism and many more.

This "energy essence" is drawn from the negative side of the universal energy source (destructive), and surrounds the light at the core of the soul, which is the divine spark of God, being the positive emotional feeling of love. (Creative).

SINNING is:

1 - The Act of 'eating' the fruit of the Tree of Evil, and this is forbidden by God as the 'fruit' is the dark forceful energy of God that contains within IT all the dark, deceptive, controlling, invasive, vengeful, jealous, vain, prideful, critical, punitive and destructive energy that contaminates the soul of the user and, - - -

It leads their soul away from the Light of Heaven as they use it to control and punish others and, - - - the user places themself into the Dark punitive aspect of God's superior "As you sow so shall ye reap" Law, and they then suffer similarly on a later day as God fulfills His 'eye for an eye' Law.

SINNING is:

- 2 - The Act of mentally or emotionally or physically inflicting pain onto another.
- 3 - The Act of taking by force or otherwise for gain.
- 4 - The emotional expression of any sin force by word or deed abusively at another.
- 5 - Allowing negative energy to flow up from the dark side through us to another child of God.
- 6 - The Dark (Satan or Devil) energy showing itself on earth (its face) in operating through people in the flesh or when in spirit.
- 7 - The negative side of God exerting its control on earth and IT is the Reaper in action through the ignorant.
- 8 - Anti-Christ, Anti-Love, deceptive, merciless, unforgiving, punitive and destructive.

We COMMIT a sin as the direct result of succumbing to the negative thoughts that enter our minds through the vibration of the sin force, and we use the dark energy of God directly or indirectly via our servants. The sin force is the "doorway" through which our mind is telepathically impregnated with a 'justification' to do what IT the dark inspires us to.

The negative thoughts activate the fleshly body and make it react negatively verbally or physically. It is during this sinning that we are SOWING the darkness that we will later REAP, and as we use its energy its energy contaminates our soul.

The sin force IS a part of the Source, being the 'dark' negative retributive aspect called by some 'the Devil.' During the ACT of sinning we are expressing negative energy at an intensity corresponding to the intensity of the energy flowing through the sin force, and we 'earn' an equal 'payback' due under God's one Law "As you do is done unto you."

The upper limit of the intensity of darkness that we can "outpour" will depend on the "size" or "volume" of this essence within us. The different negative emotions within us have different volumes. Our negative actions have the express purpose of causing pain and spreading deceit, and controlling others.

The “forces” are the Original Sin which have to be experienced by the evolving spirit on its evolutionary growth path and are implanted deeply into our souls in varying combinations.

At this “Time” they are of many different intensities, depths, combinations and varieties. The flow of universal LOVE draws these forces up through, and eventually out of our souls on a continuing basis, until the soul is free of them all and finally purified (Christed soul). Having only light within.

As sin forces are drawn through and up towards the surface in the soul, they grow in volume as the result of our sinning in the past and present. They also grow in intensity and become more difficult to control as they surface to one day clear out of the soul.

The negative emotions being the sin, are activated by circumstances to varying degrees, resulting in a multiplicity of thought processes. The soul gains vast reservoirs of knowledge from the situations experienced, both the positive and the negative ones.

Any particular emotional sin force needs to be felt and experienced in order to teach the soul, for as such, the soul is gaining an understanding of the dark, however, it does NOT have to be expressed.

If expressed and thus sinning, the soul is supping on this evil flow and drinks of this darkness. Little by little more negative energy is drawn in and this is what enlarges the sin, giving it power over us.

After many incarnations the force is lifted clear and withdrawn out of the soul, its energy essence “flashing out” of the soul and sent back to its dark source, by the Grace of God’s love.

As soon as this dark stain with its gross vibration has been “drawn out” by the Light and cleared, the soul’s vibration is more refined and clear and that particular negative emotional feeling is never again felt as it does no longer exist in the soul. The soul is now a little more Christ-like.

As the force clears out of the soul, wisdom in the form of understanding flows into the spirit soul by the grace of God. The soul now shines brighter and is spiritually stronger.

We have also at this moment attained absolution from the sin, meaning, we have been freed from it. We are responsible for our deeds perpetrated prior to a force clearing and will still continue to be “Reaping what we Sowed,” Karmic Justice.

After the sin force has been drawn out of our soul we are no longer capable of sowing any more evil through that emotion as it does not exist in us, and then we are more able to face our past debts to humanity and thus “Reap” without retaliating. When we sow only good, we also reap just rewards.

We may have incarnated into this level and returned to spirit realms many times. This usually continues until all base negative emotions have been experienced by us and drawn out, only then can we remain once and forever in the highest level of consciousness known as the ultimate heaven.

The power or pull of negative emotions can be difficult to control, hence the saying “Chained by Satan.” The powerful pull of negative feelings is within our capacity to control if we can control the accompanying thoughts. We should thus endeavour to overcome the accompanying thoughts and stop ourselves sinning. (Negative expression).

However, if we have sinned for ages and allowed the “force” to grow to an enormous power within, as some already have, and others will, we become powerless to halt the flow of dark and devious thoughts that lead us to express negative actions.

We heed no truth and thus will suffer the spiritual consequences of our actions when we pass over into spirit realms, as well as the earthly consequences of our actions.

We are all gifted as mental transceivers on a thought level, most of us being unaware of this when we are trapped in the flesh (earthly body). Our spiritual essence containing the mental body (mind) and emotional body (feelings) does not suffer this drawback when in spirit (discarnate), and also has the full facility of its spirit mind with all the knowledge the spirit has acquired through its evolvment.

Spirits “in spirit” may not perceive that they are “reached” mentally from lower levels by other spirits, but know they can reach us telepathically and use us to their own ends.

The influence of ancestral spirits over the minds of earthlings is responsible for many continuing retributive vendettas. From “beyond the grave” are earthlings manipulated mentally and used as “pawns.”

When in the flesh the being is only using the knowledge of the “mind” of that particular incarnation with its limitations, with the spirit mind “out of reach” so to speak. All the knowledge gained in any incarnation is flowing back into and stored within the spirit mind.

There are many worlds or realms or levels of consciousness, both in the realms of the light and the realms of darkness. We are drawn to a particular realm or level as we pass over out of the flesh. Our destination depends on the vibration of the soul as it leaves the body.

The mixture of light and dark energy at any moment of our eternal life determines the vibrational frequency of the spirit soul at that time.

The many different levels of consciousness are also all vibrating at different frequencies, and thus, in the manner that a magnet attracts, are we drawn swiftly to our next destination on a frequency vibrational basis.

Thus as you see, it is through our own actions that we judge ourselves to the extent that the bed we make, we surely lie in. If our vibration is heavy due to strong negative emotions, we are drawn to a low level corresponding to that vibration on a “like for like” basis where all souls at that level are suffering the same temporary disease of the soul, eg., Hatred, Jealousy, fear, etc.

A spirit with a more refined soul would be drawn up to a beautiful level corresponding to their vibration. There are many levels that are experienced by all souls during their evolutionary development, until, ultimate heaven is reached, as ONE with God the source, the finest essence, the light.

As we are telepathic instruments we are subject to thoughts emanating from the light and the dark. When we do not have any negative sin force “near the surface” or triggered active our vibration is calm, and we are happy and good, receiving guidance from above.

When a sin force is either near the surface or triggered through circumstances, we become aggressive and our vision is clouded, and we become more in tune with the dark and may succumb to the disruptive evil thoughts. Our feelings are also compounded by feelings from below, on a like for like basis.

Unfortunately, as our negative feelings become aroused, their vibration is felt by beings in dark realms called Hell who at that very instant communicate forcefully with us telepathically, and manipulate our thought processes in an attempt to make us sin. The act of sinning satiates not only our feelings at this time but also theirs. This is the little known or understood area of spirit possession.

By this spirit possession as it is known, not only are our thoughts being manipulated, but our feelings are being compounded by theirs as the negative energy essence flows through both parties and intensifies the feelings being felt.

Thus we can find it impossible to resist what we feel we must do, and we do it for a short time span, having possibly lost all control of our thoughts and reason and sanity.

We become robots, controlled and manipulated by others from unseen levels, but, still responsible spiritually for the deeds we perpetrated.

The mere fact that we have negative emotions within us allows mental contact to our minds from beings on other levels with similar emotions within.

At this end time when God’s cleansing love is flooding through the entire universe, the negative emotions of all spirits on all levels of consciousness are being drawn out at an escalated rate, and as such, a far greater percentage of people on the planet and in spirit will become intensely negative prior to sin forces clearing.

This will result in a far greater level of insanity and spirit possession, with most people at some stage becoming influenced to a great degree and being thus mentally forced to carry out the evil intent of those from lower levels of consciousness.

Total Spirit possession takes place instantly when thoughts activated by rising negative feelings are allowed to flow in unchecked. The increase of negative thought reasoning inflames the emotions and permits ever increasing mental stimulation and subjugation by the possessing spirit.

As the negative feelings in both parties become compounded, the process becomes unstoppable until the feeling has been satiated in both parties, after which the “attaching” spirit may detach.

In some cases attached spirits may stay “locked in” for many years until the attracting sin force has been lifted from the soul, or until the attaching spirit has been redirected by the light.

The heralding of the new Age of Aquarius is accompanied by a gradual quickening vibration which will increase over seven years to a hundredfold, drawing out our negative emotions at a faster rate.

The growth of rising negative emotions will allow the biggest onslaught against the human race on a mental level that we have ever seen, this truly is Armageddon of the mind.

The attack on the thought level will also be when we are asleep, and many will suffer horrendous nightmares. The tide so to speak has commenced to run in.

It will escalate at an alarming rate and peak, and the planet will become a madhouse of “possessed” men, women and children, cycling in and out of “insanity.”

The swift-flowing cleansing energy (Holy Spirit) will flow at its accelerated pace, and all souls will be in the process of acting out their rising feelings. As sin forces clear, souls will become more purified.

So people will be “cycling” in and out of negative modes as their “sin” is cleansed out of them, one sin after the other.

Remember, the soul needs to feel the negative sin (emotion) to gain spiritual understanding of it, and the soul is ONLY sinning when we express and cause pain which is the SOWING of evil, which, under divine law, we must REAP at some time in full.

All souls still in the flesh on this planet at the end of the cleansing process will have been totally purified of all sin. The meek shall inherit the earth and as there are no negative emotions left in their souls.

There will be no avenue for telepathic access from below. It is thus that Satan is sealed for the biblical one thousand years, for it is the vibration of the “sin” emotions that permits the access of negative thought to intrude into our consciousness.

Any pure soul who enters this level of consciousness from the light (heaven) to help humanity, of which there are many, always take on the sin of this world again for God, so that their conscious mind can understand and experience the same emotional/mental “trauma” that the others are experiencing.

This is so that they can “relate to” their struggling brothers and sisters. This sin is always cleared out of helpers souls before they depart this world back to heaven.

These stalwart helpers are also subject to the same law of “reap as you sow” whilst on this level. Remember that we are all personally responsible for our actions towards others as you now are “reaping,” and are now to reap more quickly for past sinning and will suffer at the hands of others.

During the duration of the next thousand years, no souls will incarnate up from levels of darkness and this material world will only be “seeded” with souls from heaven, all pure, and thus truth and love will prevail.

In this way the unity of faith being LOVE, is established, and the planet will be rejuvenated positively. These souls will not be required to take on the sin of this world as there will be no need of experiencing it after the cleansing is done.

SOW NO MORE NEGATIVITY !

STOP CAUSING PAIN TO OTHERS.

To limit the growth of a sin force in the soul and thus have an “easier,” less painful path, we need to counteract its influence and not give in to it, so do not let it control you.

It is not only controlling us when we EXPRESS it, but also when we stand ALOOF through fear or selfishness etc. for at this time the force is also active and drawing on, and drawing-in negative energy.

Those who mentally control their thought processes now, will be the enlightened ones who will be under less stress, and thus be able to assist those in desperate need of consolation and understanding, as they go through their time of mental turmoil and suffering resulting from the physical abuse to their bodies.

This being the result of the unbelievably destructive mentality of the evil spirits who will be manipulating so many in the flesh and using them to abuse others.

Negative subconscious programming of the mind from happenings in childhood days through your own fears or others negative projections onto you, may be gradually eased and lessened by love essencing direct from God to your individual soul.

This takes place each time when you heed the message given, in calling out through the simple prayer given on p. 43, and also you will be helped when listening to the ARK and STAR audios upon which is a divinely inspired message spoken by my voice.

The invisible power of the darkness is its “spell-binding” continuity of thoughts that can keep our minds going round and around in endless circles of worrying, or things to be done, or unforgiving thoughts of past happenings, or happenings to come, all resulting in deepening stress, confusion, mental exhaustion, and energetic “hype.”

“It,” the Serpent, traps us mentally into believing that “we” will not find inner peace until we resolve the problem by thinking about it, and attempting to find a solution.

This is deceit, as there is no resolution to the problems considered, nor any ending to the areas of “searching” when our minds are linked through our negative emotions to the “Whisperings of the Serpent.”

The Serpent slowly controls us through our thoughts that are the inspiration of our expressed deeds, that become more irrational and then fatal to ourselves and/or others.

Thus, we only attain peace through the suppression of, or cessation of the confusing or negative thought flow. This is only accomplished by “breaking” its “spell” over our minds, which takes place momentarily each time we do this meditation prayer, thus allowing us a little mental respite.

We are also linked mentally (telepathically) to other spirits on other levels of consciousness at all times through the vibration of our negative emotions. It is their minds too that are the link for the deceiver to reach us.

They are aware that they reach “us” mentally, but do not realise that they also are being “manipulated” in the same manner from other levels of spirit, and thus, they too need to be telepathically inspired by us to also do the Star meditation, so as to free themselves from negative thought intrusion into their minds.

This also “waters” their inner spiritual Rose with love, and they must be told telepathically (thoughts) to desist from contacting us.

Many of these beings are our ancestors who are attempting to guide us here with their misguided ancestral beliefs, not realising, that their “control” over us is contrary to God’s wish that all have freedom of choice, and freedom of expression.

Trust now in God, let the light of God break the spell of the Serpent’s thoughts three times a day, giving us a little respite, and thus, we are able to remain sane until the time that our Creative God of light and love has “removed” out from our souls the negative emotions, (the sin), one by one.

For it is then and only then, that the “doorway” to this darkness is closed, and then, as there is no avenue for negative thoughts to reach our minds, clear rationality and peace within at last are found.

Trust in God let it so be trust in God thus you will be set free.

~ The STAR OF BETHLEHEM ~
The Morning Star meditation prayer.

Children:

Children, children, you must pray, pray to Jesus every day.
Ask for love and strength for you, keep calm, and please be true.
Children, in this coming time, I'll need your love and you'll need mine.
Be strong and calm and quiet too, remember always that Jesus loves you.

Children, trust me day by day, so that your hearts will never stray.
When all around you starts to fall, feel my love and you'll walk tall.
Children, children, quiet now, trust in me I'll show you how.
Say these words three times a day, and to Jesus, please do pray:

I see the Star of Bethlehem high up above brilliant and beautiful and filled with God's love
I see a white light shining down from this star cleansing through my body with its power from afar wonderful Jesus please now be with me fill me with light and set my soul free

Adults:

Jesus, I see your shining Star, Jesus be with me, Jesus please help me and save me

People of any race or creed may use either of the above prayers or say:

Creator of the Heavens - Father of love
I see your Star shining above please cleanse my mind with all your love
so I may heed your call of peace from above

If any one of these meditation prayers is said three times a day, then slowly but surely the ARK of the mind is built, giving us an inner mental cleansing and strengthening that lessens the invisible power of negative thought.

I repeat, do it from today, before your mind is out of control, and become stronger within. With this inner strengthening we will find ourselves calmer in the face of adversity, and more able to remain in control of our actions as our dark sin surfaces within, as it is drawn up and out by God's Grace.

This meditation is the key to the "well-spring" of inner love, the eternal flame of light and love within each soul, enabling it to flow more easily, allowing healing of the spirit soul to occur, thus over time "easing" the whole being on all levels.

Remember Christ's truth: "Go in peace," it is the only way.

FORGIVENESS - COMPASSION - COURAGE - MERCY - FAITH

~ JUSTICE ~

the perfect Justice of God's Law as now revealed

1 - We reap what we sow at the time and place ordained by God that we are so to do.

2 - Whosoever is abused and suffereth any pain, mental, emotional, physical, loss or more, let all mankind know that this soul did it to others before.

~ JUDGMENT ~

And as for one day when you stand a'fore the Lord, that's mankind's belief, not the true word. For 'tis we who judge ourselves see, and our judgment is our destiny.

The destination to which we go. 'Tis our soul's vibration that follows the flow, the flow of energy deep within. Light like the heavens or heavy darkness from sin.

If we stay calm and others not abuse and don't allow those "others" below to us misuse, our souls stay clear and we above go. 'Tis when we lash out that negativity does in us grow, and this negativity does stain our souls, and the souls vibration grosser grows.

And, when from the flesh the soul passes out, it's drawn to the level it's all about. Yea verily, 1001 levels there be, from the darkest depths to the heavens I see, and 'tis this new understanding I must mankind give so that forever they can on the highest level live.

I Terence be the one sent by God to thee to God's truth pass on, about how you your journey won. So the correction of the salvation truth is my proof. Seek the star that shines for you from afar.

The ARK is very strong, you will be sheltered from doing wrong if you heed this my call, for now the final rise or fall.

A tremendous effort is needed right now on the part of caring people to prepare for what is about to escalate into the most unbelievable crisis that humanity has ever faced.

The only help available will be from these caring souls in the community who band together daily to assist those in their immediate area who will have suffered each day and night when most evil deeds are perpetrated.

Remember, our enemy is an invisible one from within, we must from this very moment be aware of our thoughts at all times, they can be neutral or positive. Any negative thought flow must be identified and something done straight away to halt the negative flow, be aware!

Seek out the worst of your present fears, things out of control? Panic? Stop ! Think, identify, and trust. Whosoever your God be, of whatever name, be it God, Allah, Buddha, Mungu, Shiva, or any other of any belief system, call on JESUS.

He will set your soul free by fortifying your mind, I see, this says Father God whose Word Jesus spoke as he trod. So believe now what I say, our Father speaks through me today. If you rebuke me, you Father deny, and for sure will spiritually die.

Your - task is to do your bit selflessly with faith, hope, compassion and forgiveness in your heart.

Your - effort is needed to not become a part of what you see around you.

Your - effort is needed to remember Christ's words:
 "I forgive them Father, for they know not what they do."

Your - greatest effort is needed within yourself to overcome negative thoughts rising up in your mind and controlling your actions.

Remember - if you fail in the above, your thoughts will to varying degrees be controlled by invisible dark forces, and your deeds will become questionable and beyond your control.
 Remember - all souls are being tested and elevated in varying degrees.

Remember - the sin, negative feelings, in all beings are being brought forward to be cleared in those in the flesh and in spirit.

Remember - no confrontation, walk away from aggression.

Remember - do not arm yourself, this attracts aggression and also lowers your faith threshold.

Remember - God is by your side do only what He would do and feel His presence with you.

Remember - to attain heaven, you must pass over whilst not sinning.

Remember - retribution from our past sinning will come from many hands.

Remember - Christ Jesus our hope.

To lessen the power of negative thought intrusion, and to avoid becoming possessed, do the "Star" meditation and build the ARK of the mind.

At night if fearful, keep the lights on and play some music, sing and dance together, you may also play the relaxation "Star" or "Ark" tapes as you go to sleep.

You may so far think that you are a lucky one who as yet is not being influenced by negative thought, believe me, no one is free of this invidious cunning intrusion until they are cleansed of all inner sin.

Soon the pull* from lower levels will be so strong that their drag* will be irresistible unless you prepare your mind daily, don't allow any negative thoughts to run free in your mind, otherwise, soon, you will be running from the law, earthly and spiritual.

- 1 - Identify thought.
- 2 - Act immediately.
- 3 - Prepare the ARK of the Mind.

We must see clearly and realise, negative feelings we must not despise. In this sin that within us lies is the power for our spirits to rise, learning from the understanding therein that we get from flirting with sin.

When that sin has torn us apart, hallelujah it does our soul depart. Accept it as a part of life, you cannot remove it with a butchers knife. So keep it under tight control, otherwise, your thoughts will get soiled, twisted and turned by fiends low who want you to join them down below.

This my good friends you must see for full awareness that needs be. Be understood once and for all if you would join us with our lord. Seek deep and draw my truth near, only this way will you to God veer.

During this cleansing and separation of souls process, those that die* or "pass over"* into spirit with negative emotions "sin" still within their souls, will be taken to "light" realms if they go in peace as Christ did, and further purification will take place in spiritual realms.

Those who pass over actively retaliating will be drawn swiftly down to cold dark realms to learn remorse, and their time there will be as an eternity.

There are billions of souls on this planet of ours, and the day must come when each one departs, so buckle up lads and hear me out, when you go it must be in calm, not ravaged by sin and doubt. Hear me well for it's the truth, and it's so very important to get it right from the start.

Those that pass over whilst reveling in sin will forever and a day wonder why so stupid they'd been, for it's simple see, between you and me, if you stay calm when the devil's about, your soul goes to heaven without a shadow of doubt.

So don't ever fear those guys tearing around, for if they take your life, 'twas fate you bound, so get the message "right" from the start, and forever and ever you'll be glad you were smart. Of course you're free to go the way you must, but please keep your cool and in our Lord above trust.

Seek ye the shelter, the shelter within, shelter of silence not shelter of sin, nothing but courage lest your soul hate, this would be sinful, dreaded and belate. Lose not the silver thread that joins you to God. Sanity and peace shall be your lot.

Sharing, caring people are who we need to find, of every race and religion who on each street abound. They must band together and meet sometimes each week, for these the meek and humble, will be the ones the foe to meet.

Nightly, nightly, the river will flow, the river of terror and pain. Every morning must the humble ones go, collect all the injured and take them home. This must be done in every village, to help the needy and weak to overcome their pain and fears and daily get back on their feet.

Hospitals too few and policemen too, and feelings must be allowed to run, so on every second street my lads find chemists herbalists and nuns. Many, many willing hands is what we'll need, loving caring people who'll help those in need.

So now's the time to plan ahead and speed up your pace because you see, in this great war, we must old Satan face. Gather around and make your plans, tell your friends what's to come.

All the good kind caring folk must get together to help those on the run, and if you can keep busy see, and tend for the sick and the dying, then our dear Father up above will bless you for trying.

So keep your minds clear and bright and your hearts singing and light. Keep your promise to our Lord above and forever shall She outpour love..

Think of Christ up in the sky, look Him steadily in the eye, draw Him right down close to thee and let His huge heart enfold thee. Ask Him to clear from your head all the feelings there of fear and dread. If you practice this from now on, you shall slowly become stronger within.

For you see if you let sin in, Satan's men shall surely win, for within your mind they will spin thoughts of terrible incredible fantasy. So remember with me daily pray, pray for help throughout the night for that's the time when terror comes, and the time whenst thee must fight.

Fight the sin that enters in, so that thee may not self sin, for if sin thee must, then your soul to Satan thee entrust. Remember children, to stay free, you must your soul to me entrust. Therefore please as never before, set your minds for what's in store.

Total war, is what they wage, against all souls on this planetary page, a page in time, when humans stand upon this material earthly land.

So all men upon this earth, understand please or become serfs, forever lost in realms so low, dragged there down by Satan's bow. A bow of twisted tortured hate to which no sane creature could relate, but in this coming war with us, in ignorance* we'll fall with little fuss.

Please, please believe in what I say then you'll survive for another day. Powerful thoughts up from the dark strike your mind to find their mark. Once they've struck you with their mark they find it easy to embark and chain your tortured twisted mind, until your soul is undermined.

So all true blue souls on earth, prepare your minds for all your worth. Lord Jesus Christ is living when all of us face the lions den.

Those that break the law at night are those that sure are in dismal plight, twisted and turned by those below they have no chance in what they do or where they go so they needs be caught, and counselled see, then each day must they be set free, no matter what the deeds they do, prison guards too few too few.

We cannot lock up the world each night, we must just believe that all's a'right, so just reserve the prisons for those that kill the meek and poor. They must stay in six months, no more. Being time for a little remorse for sure. In this time you will see their violent feelings will be set free.

Desperate though our plight may be, all men must be allowed to run free. Free to feel and express see all that's bottled up see.

Certainly, pain and turmoil there will be but that's a fact we must accept that's to be. Speedily must we all understand this and mobilise all helping hands to be to help those helpless with comfort in need, so, get to it lads, with our Lord's love please. Remember, the universal law is: "We reap as we sow," so all will pay for what they do as they go.

The truth being, that Jesus came to show us the way, the why, being that it is the only way. Reach out and give with all your compassion and understanding to all, and if persecuted unto death, then go in peace as a lamb to the slaughter, do NOT retaliate. His message to you now is:

ALL THAT PERSEVERE UNTO THE END SHALL BE SAVED

The servants of God are far and wide and even Satan is used within God's stride, for Satan's a tool to test our souls, and when we fail, he's used to us over bowl.

So get the message and get it right, for Satan's now unleashed to put all right, for all those souls who did evil sow, will now feel the power of Satan in them grow, and these mighty forces of dark within, will bend men's minds and make them further sin, and within this sin that God doth despise, the souls will fall and all will hear their cries.

So listen well and listen hard, the time has come when we'll be charred, charred like coal as we burn at night for all must pay Karmic debts before they're a'right.

As our sin clears from ages past, our souls will become clearer and the light we will grasp, and the curled up leaves of our dried up souls will turn and grow afresh as sin leaves our bowls.

So, sons and daughters, now we will reap during the day, and even when we sleep, for the satanic power of souls below, inspired by GOD, will this truth sow. That icy darkness, far, far from the light, a twilight zone filled with terror all night.

Hatred and vengeance and cunning see, that devours your soul as it entwines thee.

Tools of torture may you spear as satanic forces draw to you near, but you are only reaping what you sowed, so go calmly don't let fresh chaff be sowed. So vengeance at last must be laid at rest. If you cannot, then you prolong your test. If you can't take your punishment as along you go then you'll sin again, and down you'll go.

'Tis but the simple truth revealed to me by our Lord God, who shines through me. So bend your minds to do his will for if thee cannot then you're in for a spill. Our loving God high in the sky says:

"Now's the time to do or forever die"

For souls live for an eternity, that I know, and those that fail fall for 1,000 years into the snow. Oh, sweet children from out the past can you not sit quietly and see God's will at last, or, will you forever on this earthly plane roam, back and forth from many a twilight zone.

There are no secrets in the universe, only on earth can we be perverse, for 'tis but here that we believe no one can tell what they don't perceive.

Oh, what fools we all here be, like little goldfish swimming open for the universe to see, and now dear friends, truth must be told so I beseech you all to be bold. Bold in courage, bold in face, for in truth though evil, we've not yet lost the race.

For the mighty love of God above will cleanse all souls with all His love and in this testing time as we burn see, like gold refinement, it needs be, our minds must just for this time be totally in control of inner rising negativity.

Even when these feelings rise and rise, deafen our ears and cloud our eyes, we must remain calm with hands by side, for only this way will we the storm outride. The chance at last in eternity to pay past debts to all souls see. Only then, as inner forces draw clear, at last, at last, to God we draw near.

Beautiful Jesus high up above, fill me please daily with your boundless love,
and as I daily in your face gaze, cleanse my thoughts and pervading evil erase.

Calmer now, and stronger, with wisdom galore, we can see the light of that far distant shore. Reach out please darlings far, far in the night, and help all your brethren in the coming plight, and the power of His love now flowing through me, sends you HIS blessings for all to see.

For HE would gather YOU up in His arms, where forever and ever you'll abide in heavenly balm.

~ Jesus & Muhammad ~

God/Allah sent Jesus to earth to say :

“For your “doing” you will pay, and in order to pay, you must not retaliate in any way. Die as a lamb going to the slaughter. In being “crucified” for your past, you will become my heavenly son or daughter.”

Allah/God sent Muhammad to earth to say :

“To the merciful am I merciful, to the destroyer am I destructive, and all deceivers become lost in my dark weave. True believers know that I do not deceive the ones who are peaceful and make no other grieve.”

The ‘pen’ of Terence speaks

To all those now who on earth plod who would reach out and hear the Word of God, this then now to them is what I say, and that they hear it, I do pray.

Sell all they have except their bed. If they cannot then they are surely dead, for what they keep they will fight to hold and the result of this is a story old.

So I go on and further say, reach out to all that come your way. Hungry and needy must be fed, a pillow found and a mattress for their bed, and clothing too and a medicine box must be near where they keep their socks.

Buildings must be requisitioned see where all these happenings are to be and all the local helping hands must be counselled on Satan’s coming bands, bands of brigands standing tall, filled with hate and taking all.

So much preparation we needs see, to hide the food that’s in storage to be. Pumpkins and rice and cabbage and bread, these we’ll need to feed those on their bed, and, mountains of meat tinned for sure, must be hidden under many a floor.

Money will all soon go up in smoke as every second soul becomes a satanic bloke, so all must be sold we here see and provision made for shortages to be, for time as time, we have little left, soon so soon, many grieving and bereft, and in this time all must be bought see, to feed and clothe and shelter all in deep misery.

And, any souls who think of themselves will fall to Satan and fill his icy shelves. A penny in the pocket and you’ll not go, for a camel in a needles eye you cannot sew. So, do your best and understand, for our Lord God above sees all in thee.

Compassion and forgiveness must be to the fore in dealing with all who come to the door. The hateful and evil are suffering too, and they are the ones who’ll need to rely on you, for as their inner hatred does clear, they too will become angels dear, and we all must aspire to the dove if we would reach heaven and our Lord’s love.
